

Environment Technician

Written by Administrator
Wednesday, 09 June 2010 19:48 -

Environment Technician

Environment Technicians investigate, assess and monitor pollution levels in the air, water and soil.

What do Environment Technicians do on the job?

- Maintain equipment and instruments required for environmental monitoring
- Assist in operation of hazardous waste and waste disposal facilities
- Conduct the Environmental Monitoring Program
- Maintain files and submit reports
- Provide environmental training

Where do Environment Technicians work?

- AREVA and Cameco
- Engineering Consultants
- Environmental Consultants
- Governmental Agencies

Job Titles

- Environmental Consultant
- Geo-environmental Technician

What characteristics do you need?

- Problem solving and decision making skills
- Communication skills
- Interest in environmental issues
- Computer knowledge

Average Hourly Wage from 2006 Survey of Wages – Saskatchewan Labour - $23.64/hour

Post-Secondary Institutes

- SIAST – Environmental Engineering Technology

Environment Technician

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 09 June 2010 19:48 -

- o Diploma Program
- o Require: Grade 12 with a minimum of 60% in Math A 30, B30, and C30
- o Length: 77 weeks (five academic semesters) and eight-month paid Co-operative Education work terms

Career Ambassador Project

Community Vitality Monitoring Partnership Process

306-425-6883